

Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre Presents: The Artist Journey
A One-Day Creative Experience for the Arts & Culture Community
Arts Education Centre and Williams Mill Gallery - Wednesday February 6, 2013

The Artist Journey

The Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre is pleased to present "The Artist Journey", a one-day creative experience for those in the arts and culture community. The event includes a panel presentation of experts from public and private galleries, a Canadian artist that has explored and created an adventurous art journey, a Gemini-nominated film screening and art exhibit opening.

Workshop – Arts Education Centre

- 9:30 am Registration and Light Refreshments
- 10:00 am Panel Presentation: Moving from the Gift Shop Into the Gallery ?
Representatives from public and private galleries discuss the relationship development of the artist to the curator, and the home for fine craft.

Demetra Christakos, Executive Director, Ontario Association of Art Galleries
Margaret Kirwin, Gallery Administrator, Abbozzo Gallery
- 11:30 am Question & Answer Period
- 12:00 noon Lunch and Networking
- 1:00 pm An Artist Journey: Lessons in Marketing the Art and the Artist Journey

Cory Trepanier, Painter, Explorer and Filmmaker
The Fine Art of Cory Trepanier
- 3:00 pm Question & Answer Period

Artist Talk & Film Screening – Arts Education Centre

- 7:00 to 9:00 pm Artist Talk and Film Screening: Cory Trepanier presents Gemini-nominated docu-film "Into the Arctic II"

Considered his most grueling and ambitious film project to date, "Into the Arctic II", a 90-minute docu-film follows Cory on his brutal path of artistic discovery. In it, Cory encounters Arctic wolves and polar bears. He explores Mount Thor, the highest sheer rock face in the world, paints at the edge of Wilberforce Falls, the highest waterfall in the world above the Arctic Circle, and navigates the breathtaking Sam Ford Fiord ... all with his easel and canvases strapped to his back.

Opening Celebration of the Cory Trepanier Solo Art Exhibit – Williams Mill Gallery

- 9:00 to 10:30 pm Opening Celebration and Light Refreshments
